

Mainstream Bio:

Delois Prince, affectionately known as the Strategic Transformation Architect (The S.T.A.), is a sought-after international speaker, mentor, Master Life Coach, and Master Transformation Coach renowned for empowering individuals and organizations to unlock their full potential. With a unique blend of academic rigor and practical experience, Delois brings a transformative approach to personal and professional development.

Her educational background includes a Bachelor of Arts in African American Studies from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a Bachelor of Science in Biology with a minor in Chemistry from Winston-Salem State University. Delois further enhanced her expertise through certifications in Project Management (University of Colorado and Google), Master Life Coaching and Master Transformation Coaching (Transformation Academy), and Emergency Medical Training, demonstrating her commitment to holistic personal advancement.

Delois's career spans over two decades, where she has been at the forefront of organizational change, project management, health equity advocacy, and personal coaching. As an AI consultant and curriculum developer, she has helped numerous faith-based organizations harness technology for growth, while her speaking engagements leave audiences inspired and equipped to take action.

Her work emphasizes empowering clients to align their vision with actionable steps, offering them the tools to pursue their providential life. Whether leading a workshop, delivering a keynote, or working one-on-one, Delois Prince's transformative guidance equips her clients to achieve their next level of success with clarity and purpose.

Ministry Bio:

Reverend Delois Prince is a distinguished Kingdom voice, renowned for her dynamic preaching, prophetic insight, and apostolic calling. With over 20 years of church ministry experience, Reverend Prince brings a wealth of knowledge, spiritual insight, and pastoral care, making her a respected proclaimer across various platforms. Her ministry is rooted in a deep passion for investing in the lives of others and seeing them transformed by the power of God.

Her journey in ministry began with a passion for serving God and His people, which led her to pursue a Bachelor of Arts in African American Studies from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She earned her Master of Divinity from Shaw University Divinity School and further prepared herself to serve the Body of Christ globally by achieving certification in Biblical Women's Studies from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Reverend Prince is also currently enhancing her preaching skills through the Compelling Preaching Initiative at Christian Theological Seminary. She holds ordination under the Rowan Baptist Association in Salisbury, NC, solidifying her role as a recognized leader with a prophetic and apostolic calling. This equips her to provide spiritual guidance and lead with authority, combining the heart of a pastor with compassion, wisdom, and strong leadership, both within the church and the broader community.

As a spiritual entrepreneur, Reverend Prince's calling is evident in her founding of D.I.V.A.S. (Divinely Inspired & Victoriously Anointed Sisters), a vibrant ministry focused on spiritual enrichment and empowerment for women, both within the church and the broader community. She also founded S.I.S.T.E.R.S. (Sisters Inspiring Sisters through Excellence, Resilience & Sisterhood), a thriving Facebook community supporting over three hundred women in ministry and business. Her workshops and speaking engagements, particularly aimed at galvanizing minority women, resonate across a diverse audience.

Today, Reverend Prince continues her ministry with the heart of a pastor, the insight of a prophet, and the strategic vision of an apostolic leader. Her life's purpose is to see lives transformed by the power of the Gospel and to equip others to live fully in their divine calling. As the CEO of Delois Prince Enterprises and a steward of Kingdom resources, she embodies the values of faith, resilience, and compassion, making her ministry both impactful and life-changing.

